Complaint : HPCSA Rule 23 - Dr Weber Prosthesis Company and the failure of the HPCSA to take action.

I refer to my Complaint lodged with the HPCSA on the 22-10-2009 which has not been acted on by the HPCSA.

Dr France Weber, botched my hip replacement at the Sandton Medic Clinic.

It has come to our Notice while investigating the background to the Botched Hip Replacement, (4 operations at Sandton Clinic and a further 2 at Millpark to remove the infected hip) that Dr Weber owns the Hip Prosthesis company , in violation of the HPCSA rule 23. (attached)

The Company BARC Developments, as per the attached Guide to Hip Replacements, gives the Company details as:

Sandton Clinic have failed and or refused to forward to me Copies of the Invoices, and Specifications of the Prosthesis. Questions have been asked by professional people if the prosthesis fitted to me was new or Second Hand. It could have well been second hand. (see attached emails)

We believe that it is unethical for a Doctor to be making and or selling body parts for profit, and being the Surgeon at the same time.
